فَمَنْ كَانَ يَرْجُوا لِقَاءَ رَبِّهِ فَلْيَعْمَلْ عَمَلًا صَالِحًا وَلَا يُشْرِكْ بِعِبَادَةِ رَبِّهِ أَحَدًا

¹All praise is due to Allah alone, and may the Salat, Salam and blessings be upon the final messenger, our prophet Muhammad, his family, companions and all those who follow his guidance and act upon his Sunnah to the Day of Resurrection.

To proceed; how excessively have eastern and western countries emphasized and promoted democracy and human rights at a time when human life is being demeaned, and people in some countries face all sorts of tribulations such as bloodshed, the demolition of their lands and displacement, such as what has been taking place in Sham (Syria) for coming up to two years now watch of the whole world.

An estimated 40,000 people were killed in this period, and democratic countries have not even taken one step to stop this mindless regime in Sham (Syria) from the bloodshed that is broadcast on a daily basis.

Rather, the United Nations – which countries refer to during disputes – is governed by five countries which have given themselves the right to be permanent members in it, and each of these five countries has been given the right to object to any decision issued by the organization by using what is called the right to nullify (a veto).

What type of democracy is this, O propagandists of democracy?!

And what is happening in Syria now in terms of bloodshed, displacement and destruction with fighter jets amongst other things is the result of two out of these five countries exercising this right (to veto) which is a part of the protocols of the United Nations.

It is only appropriate for a president who does such things to his nation to be flown out of the country with one these aircrafts to an allied country, so the people of Syria can be delivered from his evil and to put an end to the suffering he is causing.

How can it even be considered that he remains in a country that he has been demolishing and killing its people?!

A similar scenario was under the rule of Jamal 'Abdul Nasir in 1967; he started a war with the Jews that did not last more than six days; the Jews called it The Six Day War. The result of this war was that the Jews further occupied additional land from Egypt and other areas.

He then proclaimed that he was victorious, since the Jews, even though they occupied the land, wanted to put an end to the rebellion but the rebellion was still alive!?

I remember that very day, and that Mr. 'Umar Farookh wrote an article mocking him titled: "Let the Country be destroyed as Long as the President Remains"

So do they want history to repeat itself through the tyranny of Bashar? That he remains and the people of Syria are destroyed?!

I say in conclusion: It is the Syrian people's right upon their Muslim brothers amongst the Arabs and other than them – especially the leaders - to exert all efforts to lift the oppression that has befallen their brothers in Syria, they likewise have this right over all intellectuals of the world; it is upon them to put an end to this dreadful massacre.

I ask Allah the Glorified to rectify the affairs of the Muslims in every area, and that He delivers the people of Syria from the oppression of the tyrants, indeed He Hears all and is ever responding.

And may the Salat and Salaam and blessings be upon His servant and Messenger; our prophet Muhammad and upon all his family and companions.
